Texas Law requires a person insured under a property insurance policy to pay any deductible applicable to a claim made under the policy. It is a violation of Texas Law for a seller of good or service who reasonably expects to be paid wholly or partly from the proceeds of a property insurance claim to knowingly allow the insured person to fail to pay, or assist the insured person's failure to pay, the applicable insurance deductible.

This is a legally binding contract. The above process, specifications and conditions are satisfactory and are hereby accepted. The property owner agrees that if property owner's insurance company approves the items herein, Excel Construction Group is hereby granted the exclusive right to perform said work. A fifteen percent liquidated damage fee will be charged for cancellation of this contract after an agreement has been made between Excel Construction Group and Insurance company. If, however, property owner's insurance company does not authorize the repairs, or the amounts offered by the insurance company are not agreeable by Excel Construction Group, this agreement is null and void. In addition, Excel Construction Group will also be allotted fifteen percent of all paid out claims in reference to BUSINESS INTERRUPTION - any revenue loss, material loss, production loss, transportation loss and any other miscellaneous costs related to said claims.

Contingent upon insurance approval
